

GOING PAPERLESS...

As more people choose to manage their lives online, we're giving you the option to "Go Paperless" with your Irish Life.

We're pleased to say that you can access your policy documentation using your online account.

If you would like to continue to receive communications on your Irish Life plans by paper, this is absolutely no problem. Simply click on "No Thanks" and we'll continue to send everything to you by post.

But if having your plan communications from Irish Life in one secure, online and personal place sounds appealing, "Going Paperless" may be for you.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

When you "Go Paperless" we stop sending you hard copy (paper) documents by post. Instead, we'll store your documents in the your personal online account, under the My Documents section. And there's no need to worry about missing anything, because every time a new document is added to your account, we'll send you an email and text alert to let you know.
